Grand Junction, Colorado

Grand Junction is located in Western Colorado, 260 miles west of Denver and 295 miles east of Salt Lake City on U.S. 50, 6 and 24.

The city is served by two airlines, one railway and one major bus service. Its metropolitan population is estimated at 37,000.

Situated at 4,587 feet above sea level, Grand Junction is a wholesale trade, retail, livestock, mineral, oil, gas, medical and sports center of the broad Colorado Plateau.

Nearby scenic attractions include the Grand Mesa, Colorado National Monument and numerous exciting canyon roads. An average of only 8 inches of rain falls annually on Grand Junction and winters are bright, sunny and mild.

The city boasts the finest park system in Western Colorado, including two swimming pools. Other facilities in the area are two golf courses, many picnic areas, lighted baseball, tennis and football areas and a number of gymnasiums.

Stan Musial

The seventh annual National Junior College Athletic Association Baseball Tournament is featuring Stan Musial, former great baseball player with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Musial, now an executive with the St. Louis baseball club and Director of the President's Council on Physical Fitness, spoke at the pre-tournament banquet and will make several appearances at Lincoln Park during the tournament.

Musial, 43, holds a long list of National League or Major League records from his playing days.

Musial's entire Major League career, which was begun in 1941 and ended with the close of the 1963 season, was spent with St. Louis. He spent three years in the Minor Leagues before joining the Cardinals during the 1941 season.

Principal among Musial's prizes are playing in more All-Star Games than any other player (18); named National League's Most Valuable Player in 1943, 1946, and 1948; named Major League Player of the Year in 1946 and 1951; named Player of the Decade in 1956; and named top National League Player in 1957.

Musial's appearance at the NJCAA Tournament was arranged by the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball Club through Charlie Frey, chief Cardinals' scout for the Midwest Region.
