Office of the Commissioner

Bowie K. Kuhn
Commissioner

On behalf of Professional Baseball, I extend greetings to the fourteenth renewal of the NJCAA national championship baseball tournament.

I congratulate the young men on the eight contesting teams, the cream of the flourishing crop of junior college baseball. Win or lose in this tournament, they have demonstrated outstanding baseball talent and competitiveness by reaching Grand Junction.

The fans of Grand Junction are to be congratulated, too, for the excellent support they have given this tournament over the years. The annual championship tournament is one of the premier sports shows of the year.

Players and fans alike owe a vote of thanks to the hard-working unselfish men in the red jackets; the men who sponsor and run your tournament so successfully.

May the 1971 tournament be one for all to remember.

Sincerely yours,

NJCAA Officers for 1970-71

PAST TOURNAMENTS

1970—After finishing second in 1969, the HoKams of Mesa Community College of Mesa, Ariz., reached the JUCO tourney throne room in 1970. Coach Jim Brock's HoKams defeated Mesa College of Grand Junction 8-0. Jim Otten held the Mavs to three hits and Ken Reed, one of the smallest players in the tournament, delivered a key two-run homer. Larry Patton of Columbia State College, Tenn., won the most valuable player award.

1969—Panola College of Carthage, Tex., used only 12 players in the six-day, double-elimination but the lack of depth did not hamper the tireless Texans from capturing the national title with an 8-6 victory over Mesa, Ariz. Most Valuable Player honors went to Doug Ault, who won three games in the tournament for Panola, and hit .318. Ault played in the outfield when not pitching. Randy Bayer, a 6-5 first baseman with sprinter speed from Mesa, Ariz., was voted the player most likely to succeed.

1968—Glendale Community College battled the odds to win the national crown. The Gauchos dropped their tournament opener 15-8 at the hands of Manatee College but rebounded to win five straight games and the crown. Glendale's Otis McCowan was selected as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

1967—The Bacone Warriors lashed out 16 hits to defeat Odessa 10-4 for the national title. Gerald Pirtle of Bacone was the recipient of the most valuable player award, Ed Bravo of Miami-Dade was to top hitter with a .500 average and Larry Koch of Nassau was voted the most likely to succeed.

1966—Nassau Community College of Garden City, N. Y. won its first national title with a come-from-behind victory over Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., 9-6. Joe Arnold, the Miami-Dade pitcher, was selected as the tourney's most valuable player while Miami catcher Bob Stinson was named the player most likely to succeed in professional baseball. Steve Lohrer of Nassau was the tourney's leading hitter.

1965—Phoenix College won its third national title with a 9-6 victory over Gulf Coast College of Panama City, Fla. Tom Burgess of the Bears won three games and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Tom Robson of Phoenix was meet's top hitter with 13 hits in 24 times at bat.

1964—Miami-Dade College of Miami, Fla., swamps the Mesa College Mavericks 19-5 in the final game. Mack Gendreau of the Mavs is voted most valuable player and sets tournament strikeout record with 31. Gendreau, Barry Lersch, Bob Andrews and Jerry Chick named to all-tournament team.

1963—Wilmington, N.C. wins second juco title by beating Manatee, Fla., 9-2. Ken Widman of Long Island, N. Y. is most valuable player while Phil Dickens of Mantee is voted most likely to succeed in professional baseball and signs $50,000 bonus contract after tournament. Tex Tolman, Bucky Hakes and Mike DerManuel of Mesa on all-tourney team.

1962—Phoenix College claims second national title by upsetting defending champion Wilmington, N. C., 13-5. Lee McFarland, Phoenix pitcher is named most valuable player while 17-year-old George Jones of Trinidad College sets tournament batting record with sensational .647 average.

1961—Wilmington, N. C., wins first tournament title by whipping Mesa College in finals and semi-final, 8-3 and 16-9 respectively. Randy Dow, Warner Brooks and Pete Lovrich of Mesa named to all-tournament team. Ron Durham of Wilmington named Most Valuable Player.

Be proud. Be a part of the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team.

Thousands of young, dedicated American athletes are now training and competing for the ultimate amateur athletic selection: membership on the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team!

The four-year Olympic cycle is deceptively swift; the international competition, increasingly proficient. This is the continuing challenge of the United States Olympic Committee — to plan, develop, select, train, transport and house the members of our Olympic Team who will be chosen to represent the nation — proudly — at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, Germany.

To raise the more than $10,000,000 budgeted for the present Olympic quadrennial is a major financial task. Unlike other countries, the U.S. Olympic Team does not receive any government subsidy. Fortunately, through the contributions of thousands of citizens and many business firms, the financial burden is willingly shared.

But to reach the final goal, more help is needed. If you have not contributed to the current Olympic Fund, your participation will be sincerely welcomed and gratefully acknowledged. Use the form below to mail your contribution — today. In this way, you will be certain to be a part of the 1972 U.S. Olympic Team!
